MUHAMMAD'S CHEST
IS OPENED

(SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam)

Anas bin Malik (RadiAllahu 'anhu) relates that one day as Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) was playing with some children near Haleemah's house, Jibreel ('alaihi salaam) appeared and made Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) lie down. He then opened up the boy's chest, took out his heart, and extracted a lump of flesh from it, saying:

"This is the portion of Shaytaan in you."

Then he put Muhammad's (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) heart in a golden tray filled with Zamzam water, washed it and replaced it in his chest. The other children ran to Haleemah in terror crying that Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) had been killed. When they reached Muhammad (Salallahu'alaihi Wa sallam) they found him alive, his face pale from shock. Anas later said that he saw the scar on the Prophet's (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) chest where it had been sewn back together.

MUHAMMAD'S TIME WITH HIS MOTHER

(SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam)

In the wake of this supernatural event, Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) was carried back to Makkah, where for the next two years he grew up under his mother's care. When Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) was six, he accompanied his grandfather, mother, and Umm Ayman on a journey to Yathrib, where his mother's family lived. It was also where his father lay buried.

After a month in Yathrib, they began the long journey back to Makkah, but Aminah fell ill on the way. She died at Abwa and was buried there. Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) was left orphaned.

A GRANDFATHER'S

AFFECTION

Abdul Muttalib, himself growing old, carried Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) back to Makkah. His heart was heavy, and he could not bear to see his young grandson suffer. He suddenly felt tenderness in his heart that he had never even felt for his own sons. When Abdul Muttalib sat with his friends, Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) sat on a carpet next to him, a position no one else was allowed to occupy. He used to stroke his back and observe his every movement.

Abdul Muttalib was sure the future would bring Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) rare greatness. Tragically, Abdul Muttalib's time with his grandson was short, for he died when Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) was only eight years, two months and ten days old.

UNDER HIS UNCLES CARE

After the death of Abdul Muttalib, his son Abu Talib took Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) under his care. Abu Talib and Abdullah, the Prophet's (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) father, were brothers, both born of the same mother. Abu Talib was not a wealthy man, but Muhammad (SalAllahu 'alaihi wa sallam) brought Allah's blessings with him, and suddenly Abu Talib found that he could support his family easily with a small sum of money.
